Coaches

Yebin Mok

Yebin is an internationally recognized figure skater, choreographer, and coach, known for her technical precision and artistic expression. She is a former two-time US Junior National Champion and has been a principal skater in major productions such as Holiday on Ice and Dancing on Ice UK. Yebin is often described as one of the most elegant skaters in the industry.

As a coach and choreographer, she has received several awards, including Choreographer of the Year from US Figure Skating. She has taught at prestigious camps in both the United States and the United Kingdom, and her students have earned medals at the national level. She is also the creator of Off-Ice Edge, a training concept that combines ballet, dance, and skating technique.

Yebin is passionate about developing skaters holistically—both technically and mentally—and continues to inspire athletes around the world.

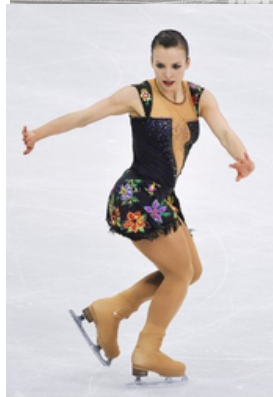

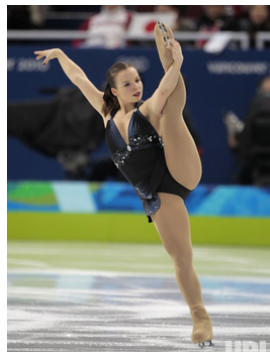

Anna Jurkiewicz

Anna is a highly accomplished former international figure skater from Poland, known for her powerful jumps and technical skill. She began skating at the age of six, landed her first double Axel at nine, and mastered nearly all triple jumps by the following year. In 1998, she became the first Polish skater ever to qualify for a Junior Grand Prix Final.

Anna is a five-time Polish senior champion and a four-time junior champion, and she has represented Poland at both the Olympic Games and World Championships with strong results. Jumps such as the flip and toeloop were her specialties, and she has won several pure jump competitions.

Since 2012, she has been the head coach at Sarpsborg Skøyteklubb, where she uses her extensive experience and technical expertise to develop the club's skaters with great dedication and passion for the sport.
